SKYHAWKS SPORTS OFFERS YOUTH PROGRAMS IN CANADA

[Spokane, WA] – Skyhawks Sports is pleased to announce that its programs are going international. Quality athletic programs for children will debut in British Columbia, Canada, in the summer of 2008. Skyhawks is partnering with eight community organizations to bring fun, high-caliber summer sports camps to young Canadian athletes in July and August.

“Our purpose is to teach life lessons through athletics,” explains Phil Champlin, Skyhawks Vice-President of Operations. “This purpose is not limited by cities, states, countries, or continents. We’d like to see every young athlete have this opportunity.”

The Canadian programs will be modeled on the version that has proved so successful in the U.S. Twenty-nine years of experience with over 1 million players has given Skyhawks an excellent foundation from which to expand into Canada. Coaches for the Canada program will be hired using the same rigorous criteria, and the safety of the young athletes will continue to be the number-one priority. The sports offered will be much of the same ones available in the U.S.

The new programs will be offered in six cities: Aldergrove, Delta, Langley, New Westminster, Surrey, and White Rock. Kris Brauns, Skyhawks Regional Manager for the Northwest and Canada, says, “It’s exciting to take the success of our programs in the States and offer our services and programs in Canada. The welcome from our new partners has been warm, and we are anticipating a wonderful first summer.”

That statement is corroborated by Layna Nielsen, Program Coordinator for Recreation Excellence, one of Skyhawks' new partners. "Recreation Excellence welcomes the opportunity to partner with Skyhawks Sports camps this summer," she affirms. "We anticipate much excitement within the community for the sports camps that will be offered."

Skyhawks Canadian programs will serve children ages three-and-a-half through fourteen. Summer sports camps include soccer, lacrosse, baseball, basketball, flag football, tennis, and golf.
